

JUDGES' FLAG SIGNALS

INDICATION OF A FOUL ON RED

The appropriate flag is waved in a circle, then a category I or II signal is indicated.

INDICATION OF A FOUL ON WHITE

The appropriate flag is waved in a circle, then a category I or II signal is indicated.

CATEGORY I FOUL ON RED

Judge crosses flags at chest level with the red flag in front towards the red competitor.

CATEGORY I FOUL ON WHITE

Judge crosses flags at chest level with the white flag in front towards the white competitor.

CATEGORY II FOUL ON RED

Judge points the flag with the arm bent toward the red competitor.

CATEGORY II FOUL ON WHITE

Judge point the flag with the arm bent towards the white competitor.

POINT RED

Judge raises the red flag at a 45 degree angle to indicate a point scored.

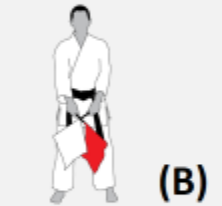

POINT WHITE

Judge raises the white flag at a 45 degree angle to indicate a point scored.

(A)

(B)

(C)

UNACCEPTABLE SCORING TECHNIQUE

Judge waves the flags (A) letting them cross just above the knees (B) and finishing uncrossed at the sides (C).

NO TECHNIQUE SEEN

The judge covers the eyes with both flags.

REFEREES' HAND SIGNALS

CATEGORY I FOUL ON RED

Referee's hands are crossed at chest level in the direction of the red competitor.

CATEGORY I FOUL ON WHITE

Referee's hands are crossed at chest level in the direction of the white competitor.

CATEGORY II FOUL ON RED

Referee points with a bent arm at the face of the red competitor.

CATEGORY II FOUL ON WHITE

Referee points with a bent arm at the face of the white competitor.

POINT RED

Referee raises arm to indicate a point for red.

POINT WHITE

Referee raises arm to indicate a point for white.

(A)

UNACCEPTABLE SCORING TECHNIQUE

The referee waves the hands letting them cross just above the knees (A) and finishing uncrossed at the sides (B).

(B)

WINNER RED

Referee raises arm to indicate red has won.

WINNER WHITE

Referee raises arm to indicate white has won.